

sirs: please do not enact a national no call list. this needs to be left to individual states as is the case in indiana.our fairly strict law has finally given us pease and quiet in our home for the firt time in years. we don't want a weakened national list. thanks for listening! john c. may